THE TOWN THAT PUSH BUILT

V.—The Wily Furniture Man

HERE is the furniture dealer who read a clothier's ad. and by it was led to spend for clothing the selfsame bill. That he got from the dry goods merchant's till. Where it had been placed when the butcher bought. And paid with the bill that he had got. When the grocer with him had settlement made. With the money the honest workman paid.

P.S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff Will always advertise his stuff.

THE TOWN THAT PUSH BUILT

VI.—The Keen Clothing Dealer

THIS is the clothing dealer who went to the hardware store and freely spent. On advertised bargains the very bill. He got from the furniture dealer's till. Where it went when the dry goods merchant bought. And paid with the bill that the butcher got. From the grocer who had settlement made. With the money the honest workman paid.

P.S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff Will always advertise his stuff.

VII.—The Brainy Hardware Man

THIS is the hardware man who took At the jeweler's ad. a careful look. Then went and bought some trinkets neat. For a girl whom he thought was very sweet. And paid for them with the clothier's bill. That came from the furniture dealer's till. Where it went when the dry goods merchant bought. And paid with the bill the butcher got. From the grocer who had settlement made. With money the honest workman paid.

P.S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff Will always advertise his stuff.

VIII.—The Up to Date Jeweler

THIS is the jeweler who needed Some boots and shoes and wisely heeded. What he was told by the shoe man's ad. And went and bought the best he had. And paid with the hardware merchant's bill. Which came from the furniture dealer's till. Where it went when the clothing dealer bought. From the dry goods man, which the butcher got. From the grocer who had settlement made. With the money the honest workman paid.

P.S.—The local dealer who's up to snuff Will always advertise his stuff.

Elder T. S. Buckingham, Superintendent of the Lexington District of the Anti-Saloon League, of Kentucky, will be in Jackson next Sunday in behalf of the interests of his cause. He will preach at the Methodist Church in the morning at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock he will hold a mass meeting of the children and others who may wish to attend, at the Baptist Church, and at night at 7:30 o'clock he will hold a mass meeting of the citizens at the Presbyterian Church. All the public are invited to attend.

To the Voters of Breathitt County.

I am a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk of Breathitt County subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

I think I am prepared to execute the duties of the above named office, having served many years as deputy in said office, and thereby becoming thoroughly acquainted with the business therein.

I refer you to my past record as being a Democrat and hope to receive the support of the party at its convention June 21st 1909.

W. B. CARDWELL.

In its proper place in another column will be found my announcement as a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk of Breathitt County. My claim to be considered and passed upon by the Democrats of Breathitt County in Convention at Jackson, Ky., on Monday June 21st 1909. In making this announcement I wish to tell the people that they will not be hindered or annoyed by my presence about their work between now and the day for the Convention.

Nor will I be at any of the present conventions on Saturday June 19th as that is an extraordinary day for teachers and the law compels me to be present on such occasions. If it is the wish of the people to have the nomination with solemnity and discretion men named in the various other offices to be sought at the coming November election I will gladly accept same and use my best efforts to leave the opposition minus a majority at said coming election.

If my claim does not have the highest consideration at said convention I may be slightly disappointed but not highly displeased.

I am with kind wishes,
Yours truly,
HENRY B. NOBLE.

There will be no preaching services at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning, as the pastor will conduct services at the H. D. Beck graveyard, at 11 o'clock in memory of Joseph Guinn, at 12 o'clock dinner will be eaten on the ground. Everybody is requested to bring their dinner with them. On account of this meeting J. E. Stivers, the Superintendent of the Sunday School at the Baptist Church requests every Sunday School student to be there not later than 9:00 o'clock sharp. All who wish to go out on Quick-sand for the memorial services will have plenty of time to do so. Everybody is invited to go.

NOTICE.

To all persons that desire to teach any school in Educational Division No. 1 in Breathitt County Ky., will please file their application with me before the last Saturday in June 1909, as said Board will meet on that day to elect teachers in all of the sub-districts in said division.

C. M. GILLEM,
Sec'y.

NOTICE.

The 1909 taxes are now due. Please call at my office in Crawford's store and get your receipt.

To the Voters of the Democratic Party of Breathitt County.

After having been solicited by the Democrats and voters of this county to make the race for County Clerk, I have decided to do so.

Subject to the action of the Democratic Party at the district meeting to be held at their various voting places on June 19th, and at the Convention to be held at Jackson on 21st, and I will be a candidate until nominated or defeated.

I desire to say that I am now 35 years old. I was born and raised in Morgan county, Ky., which is a sister county to this county, and am now a citizen of this county and have been for the last four years, and my business has been closely allied here for the last eleven years. I have always been found fighting for the cause of Democracy, and have always been faithful and true to its principles.

If nominated and elected judge of Breathitt county I pledge to each and every citizen of Breathitt county that I will honestly, faithfully, and to the best of my abilities discharge every duty incumbent upon me as County Judge. I devote my entire time for the betterment of the conditions of the county and public improvements of the county, and to the very utmost of my power and ability, with the aid of every good citizen of this county I will use for up-ward and onward.

Following is a list of my experience: I was in the Confederate army for 28 years. I was a boy and fought for so greatly in the army that I thought with greater honor than Dr. Stuart.

A Test For New York's Racing Law.

This season's experience in racing will prove whether the institution is doomed to fall without easy gambling accompaniments. It is claimed that without bookmaking New York races cannot succeed. Bookmaking is cut out, but former patrons of bookmakers who are known to the "bookies" can bet the same as before. Oral bets are legal. Bookmakers with a large circle of patrons who trust them and whom they trust can do business. Since the persecution of pool rooms began a thriving business has been done by this method with bets ranging from $1 up.

The new law puts the chance racegoer at a disadvantage. He probably is not known to any bookmaker on the track. If not he cannot bet. But the man and woman who wish to see a favorite horse run and are willing to pay the admission for that alone may indulge their love for the horse and his speed, and it is to the fidelity of this class that racing associations must now look for support.

Reliable statistics are being gathered to demonstrate the wastefulness of vagrancy, especially the damage traceable directly to the army of tramps. When the extent of this damage comes to be fully realized the people will doubtless insist upon a wise and stringent method of dealing with the evil.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

HOW TO KEEP SICKLY.

Never open the windows in your sleeping chamber. See that they are carefully closed at night and the room made as hot and stuffy as possible.

Keep out of the sunshine and be careful not to take long, deep breaths. Eat any kind of food, regardless of its nutritive value, and be as irregular as you can as to time of taking your meals. Also eat hurriedly. No waste time over a matter of this kind.

Wear an overcoat one day and go without the next. Change underwear from heavy to light during the winter months, and don't bathe oftener than once a month.

By following these few simple directions you will befriend the doctor, and if persisted in long enough the undertaker will also have a chance to make a dollar.
